Hi all,
I'm adding the following materials to help with Tuesday's web site decisional meeting.
1. List of specific decisions needed (actually, selected issues, but ones needed the most!)
2. Web text in word (updated) - with partial mark-up provided by Ted
3. Selected screen shots

We look forward to getting your input!
Thanks,
Sue

P.S. I don't think we have anyone participating remotely, so I haven't set up a conf line or adobe connect. Please let me know if you need me to do so.

Hi all,
I may have indicated in my last email on the IRIS web site redesign that it was our LAST meeting to discuss the site. Well, turns out we still have a number of questions where decisions weren't made or where suggestions for redesign led to further issues.

So, I'm inviting you to what we're considering the really really final decisional meeting on the web site.

I've reduced the number of attendees, but please let me know if you think there are other who should attend and forward this invitation. My apologies for a time that didn't work for everyone, but with vacations looming, we couldn't delay this meeting.

In advance of the meeting, Maureen and I identify the specific issues that remain, and plan to leave the meeting with a final decision for all. In the meantime, feel free to forward your comments on the web text circulated last Friday.

More details to follow.

Thank you!
Sue
